Dear Punters

Bones set us off to a good start backing Our Baby Bonus which won the 5th at Caulfield. He then backed Rolling Stock each way in the 7th and that also won. His other bets were Lady Davinci in the 2nd (no good) and Netra in the 3rd (no good). Good punting mate you bet again next week.

Willo backed his bosses horse Johan (no good) each way in the 7th at Pakenham.

Cam Fernandez backed Jusical (no good) in the 2nd at Randwick, Bright Mind (no good) in the 4th and Our Billydakid (no good) in the 8th.

Bruce backed Marveen (no good) in the 6th at Caulfield and Private Jeune (no good) in the last.

Flynn had a $50 multi on the soccer which included Arsenal to beat Everton (draw), Man/U to beat Birmingham (draw), Man City to beat Blackburn (win), Inter Milan to beat Siena (win) and Roma to beat Chieve (win). So he was pretty close.
