

WEEK 14 23/1

Dear Punters

Not a bad week but we're still down a little. We're on the improve and I can feel something big about to happen.

The Punk had a good win on Aussie Day getting the Quaddie at Caulfield. He had a great 75% of the dividend. Good stuff Punk. He goes again next week.

Blainey had a bit of bad luck. He had a couple of tips in Queensland. First tip was Star Stepper in the 4th at Gold Coast. He was told this thing would be a good place bet chance and of course it won by 5 lengths. He got a few bucks for the place. The second tip was suppose to win so he had $30 the win and $10 the place, of course it ran 4th, so no collect there. It was Brigadoon Star which raced in the 7th at Eagle Farm. That's our year.

Neil had a couple of multi's which did no good, same for Gav. He had 4 multi's and had no luck. Micky D had a punt from Asia somewhere for a big multi. All soccer and just missed by one. Bit stiff.

Even T. Lotto bobbed up with 3 numbers. I think T. Lotto should pull his finger out and start producing. He's done bugger all this year. Chins up, we're coming home with a wet sail.

Go the Punt.
