

WEEK 6 14 / 11 Sandown Classic Day

Dear Punters,

Well boys it's the end of the spring carnival and we've got our heads above water, just. It's a long season and anything can happen from here on. We finally had some luck on the weekend which made us good profit.

Everyone had a crack at Sandown Classic Day except for Stevie D who backed the draw between Australia and Oman in the Asia Cup Qualifiers. Australia won with 10 men. Then he had a 5 leg soccer multi on World Cup qualifiers which was paying $2,700. That didn't come close but it was a good idea. I like the would-be payout.

OK back to Sandown. Brad Benson backed Blitz'em Riley and had a flexi trifecta in the 3rd which did no good. Whitey had a day out by his standards backing Kidnapped which won in the 6th. He also backed Master O'Reiley (3rd) each – way in the 7th and Jungle Ruler (2nd) each – way in the 8th, so he gets to punt again next week for the 1st time, well done.

The punk backed Husskila in the 4th (no good) then was unlucky in the 7th backing Purple (2nd) each – way which just got pipped by Zipping and Viking turf Belle in the last each – way which was leading only to run out of steam in the 50 meters to get 4th. He was a bit stiff not to be punting again next week. His run comes to an end.

Hobbo saved the day backing Dane Julia ($25 each – way) in the last which won. It paid a healthy $10.70 for the win and $3.60 the place. That's his best result so far and he will be carry over champ for the first time. Well done mate.

We're building a bit of momentum and I can feel something is going to happen big time soon.

Go the punt.

WEEK 6

Ben Samson (c.o.c.)	$28.50	Outlay	$1602
Brad Benson	$0	Winnings	$1659.40
Whitey	$68
Stevie D	$0	Results	+$57.40
Hobbo	$357
T. Lotto	$0
	$453.50

Week 7 next weeks punters

Whitey (c.o.c.)

Hobbo (c.o.c.)

Flynn

Dean

Mick Helman

T. Lotto