WEEK 9 5/12

Dear Punters

Sorry that last weeks report was not done on time as we were waiting for the Danny Green v Roy Jones Jnr. fight to take place. We had a multi still alive but it didn't come in. Last weeks results were $0.

OK, this week we had all the debutants having a crack.

Jay backed Scenica, $25 each way in the 4th at Caulfield which placed paying $3.10. So he gets to punt again next week.

Dale McCortin backed Gag Order, $25 each way, in the last at Doomben which placed paying $2.30. Well done mate so he too gets to punt again.

Rohan Shade backed Ballet Bird in the 1st at the Gold Coast (no good) and Gambono in the 2nd (no good). He was a bit stiff when he had a flexi trifecta in the 7th at Caulfield. It was Field for 1st, Timetable for 2nd and Field for 3rd. Timetable ran 3rd. Bad luck mate.

Bruce Hayden backed Mr Crane (no good) in the 3rd at Cauldfield, also a bit stiff in a flexi trifecta in the 5th getting 1st, 2nd, 4th and 5th to just miss. He also backed Bocuse (no good) in the 7th at Doomben.

Mick CcCubben backed Ravishing Reward (no good) in the 4th at Caulfield, Jeteven (no good) in the 6th and Darren Youngs horse Interak (no good) at Terang on Monday.

Go the Punt.
