

WEEK 20

Dear Punters

That's it! It's all over for another year. We had a bit of a comeback over the weekend, which means more punting dollars for Caulfield. Don't forget the Punters Club Big Day Out, on Saturday 4th April. I will get around on Thursday to get some numbers together. Fitzy has kindly offered his pad for a few drunks after the races, what a team player. Aiden Short landed a good multi which paid $7.95 x $50. In the multi he had Mardy Fish (tennis), Geelong (AFL), Sharks, Bulls (super 14 rugby) and Everton (EPL) to win. That was a great result. Good enough to win him the Punter of the Year award in his debut season. Two multis' in a row got the chocolates.

Another big winner was Hayden Kelly. He backed Niconero in the Group 1, Futurity Stakes at Caulfield, putting $25 each way paying $7.90 a win and $2.90 a place. That was a big bet for a big win. Hope it goes into next season mate.

Overall we punted without luck, but that's punting. You can't win them all. Thanks to everyone for the season. Hope we can turn it around next year. On behalf of the Punters Club I'd like to wish the 1sts, 3rds and 6ths the best of luck for the finals. Maybe you might find that luck that we didn't have this year. Go the punt.
