TRAINING NEWS

Well training is now into full swing with good numbers on most days, it has also been our first chance to see some of the new recruits the club has picked up. Welcome to all new players and their families, we look forward to getting to know you throughout the season.

A reminder, training continues Monday's, Wednesday's and Friday's.

A reminder to all players, please ensure you are wearing the correct attire, this includes runners, boots (when it becomes allowed), running shorts, (no board shorts etc), bathers and towel.

All supporters are welcome to come along to support the boys while they get themselves prepared for the 2005 season.

Any questions about training or if you are unable to attend please speak to Mark Attard on 0402 214 266

THE LOSS OF A SPECIAL MEMBER

Just to let all members of the Norwood Football Club know, Ted John's past away a week ago quietly.

Ted was one the club's early life members and was well known for propping himself next to the Bar thus the naming of that corner after him.

All at Norwood pass on our condolences to his family.
